FERVOR'S SPARKLING RACE.

"Worse and more of it" was the general comment aent the weather at Washington Park yesterday. John Rodegap said that he came up from St. Louis to keep cool but that in heat as in everything else, Chicago quite outclassed the city on "tother end" of the Big Bridge. Twenty-seven regular bookmakers were on and business was transacted as outlined by RACING FORM in the morning.

The "block man" of each concern sat on a stool and handled the money, his hat bearing a bit of pasteboard telling customers who and what he was with reference to cashing winning tickets. The sheet writer sat beside him and kept a sharp lookout on the other financial transactions, as the tray used in many cases to hold the money was apt to get joggled by the seething, sweating mass of humanity that in its eagerness to see the odds, swarmed about. There were no slates, the odds being posted on the program of the day.

Re-erring to the change in the betting system, "Paddy" Ryan exclaimed: "Did anyone ever see anything so ridiculous?"

Tommy Burns, whose time of suspension had expired, was up on Macy, always a 4 to 5 shot.

Hurly Burly delayed the start and after several breakaways, Hildreth's filly, in getting away in inside position, was bumped and at the club house was nearly thrown down, so that in entry to the backstretch she was "absolutely." Graziella was indulged with the lead, Macy lying second at the half, Hurly Burly getting through on inside, third, The Roman, fourth; others out of it. Macy won as he pleased.

Riley Grannan and "Hops" Laudeman got off a "good thing" in Onomastus, getting on at 8 and 10 to 1, and playing the colt both ways. The son of Onondaga went to the front at once and won handily. Kentucky Colonel was fourth on the outside on the upper turn but finished second on the rail. The start was delayed by Ostra, who ran furthest at the breakaways. Gold Fox was prominent for three furlongs. Onomastus was an 8 to 5 chance for the last race on Derby Day, but Jinks and Queen of Song ran first and second.

The Oakwood Handicap, 11-8 miles, a fixture that in former years was noted for producing a field of first-class horses, dwindled down to six starters and none of these was of the quality of such horses as Racine and kindred winners of the years gone by. What Er Lou, on the strength of wins of two big handicaps at St. Louis, was made favorite at 6 to 5, while at the beginning of the betting from 4 to 6 to 1 could be had against any other starter. What Er Lou went to the post at 9 to 5; anything else could be had at 4 to 1.

Imp, off first, Judge Denny last to a good start, was joined by Timemaker, and the pair ran first and second to the middle of the last turn, where Fervor, always close up, displaced Schorr's horse, and What Er Lou came up. Just entering the straight it was a pretty contest, but soon it resolved into a three-horse race amongst the placed horses. At the last eighth Fervor passed through between Imp (inside) and What Er Lou. For a few strides the trio "hung." Then Fervor, without urging, passed ahead, and the race was over many rods from the wire. Fervor's post price was 5 to 1 straight and 2 to 1 place.

Morte Fosse laid up close to Lew Hopper and Millie M., and when the former had everthing beaten midway the straight Ezells' horse went in and got the son of Punter, winning as he pleased. Albert S. made a bluff on the last turn.

The sensational "break" of the meeting for the bookies was the winning of Eugene Leigh's Hindoonet, this colt starting at 30 to 1 straight and 5 to 1 place and beating the 1 to 4 chance, Algol. The latter laid away last the first quarter, then rapidly passing the others, raced Meddler to the home stretch and from there on T. Burns, who rode the Schorr horse, took things easily and was apparently winning at the last 100 yards. Burns was watching Meddler on the inside, when on came Jockey Turner with a rush and Algol, unable to respond to the quick call of his pilot, was beaten in the last few strides. "It was 3 to 1 the field."

In the last race Bellicoso led to the last sixteenth, when Hugh Penny came on and got the purse with no trouble whatever.

A Chicago friend of Albert Simons, the trainer of Plaudit, relates the following: "There probably was never a more thoroughly disgusted man than Simons when he got the order from Madden 'Ship Plaudit to New York.' Albert had his pet nicely loaded on a car at St. Louis, bound for Chicago, when he received the telegram. We thought Plaudit a sure thing for the American Derby, and were figuring on getting 2 1/2 to 1 for our money.

The supposition is that Madden made some deal with the Morris party, whereby for a consideration the latter with Mirthful would not have Plaudit to beat in the Derby at Chicago. Reciprocating, Mirthful was not to be in Plaudit's way in the Realization Stakes. It was a severe blow to a young trainer, who has done mighty well this season as evidenced by the performances of Glenheim and other of Madden's horses which have showed in the East."

T. W. Coulter will sell at public auction at Washington Park July 21 his ten head of racehorses, and for a time retire from the turf. In his string are: Daily Racing Form, Redskin, California, Inuendo and Official. Baker & Gentry are to sell out on the same day and at the same place. They have Simon W. Uarda and other good horses. Mr. Coulter said: "I have business of importance apart from racing to transact in the east. There is no use of my fooling with such luck as I have had. Next year I will come around again with some 2-year-olds I now have growing in Kentucky.

Monday's races begin at 1:30 p.m., sharp. Seven events are carded.

The "cut in" Saturday was for four days. There were only two field books.

J. W. Rogers is thinking of disposing of all his horses.

The crowd was by far the largest of the meeting bar Derby day, there being present probably 10,000 persons.

The first two races were run in exactly track record time.

Charley Brossman bet on Imp.

"Star Pointer" Murphy bet on Fervor and so did Ed Corrigan.

Wm. McGuigan said: "The Oakwood Handicap was paced just right to beat records."

Fervor's win enriched James Arthur $2,000.

Barney Schreiber sent up a commission on Basquil in the fourth race.

Sam Wagner went off and Frank White "cut in."

Leo Mayer had on two books and remarked: "This system of betting is good enough for me."

He stood to win $5,000 on What Er Lou and took a $1,000 bet from Riley Grannan on Bellicoso.

"Hops" Laudeman bet Mayer $100 on Onomastus at 10 to 1.

Fervor's time—1:51 1/2—beat the track record, made in an Oakwood Handicap a full second.

Sam Wagner, when speaking of the "in-and-out running" of the meeting, was advised by Will Cherry on the proposition of "sore mouth," which the speaker claimed knocked all turf calculations at the present time.

The west side bookmaker who some days ago said "I am off to the lakes of Wisconsin to fish" was attracted by the new system of betting and had "his boys" on.

Riley Grannan is developing the eccentricity of the noted Nashville bookmaker Burton and mutters to himself as he goes about the race-track.

To the "why don't you pass such good things as Hindoonet around," "Gene" Leigh replied, "I wanted it all myself. Only got on $300 against $10,000 after all."

Willie Martin standing by said: "There I go again, lost a barrel of beer on Algol. Mr. Schorr left for home and I said to him: 'Boss, if you win with Algol today, just send me a barrel of your best brew,' and now our Hindoonet has skinned me."

Hindoonet was recently bought by Leigh of Mike Dwyer, who took the colt away from Tommy Griffin out of a selling race. Since being at Washington Park, Hindoonet's best showing, a snow-bird up, has been three-quarters of a mile in 1:16.

M. E. Walden is thinking of taking Billy Mason to Montana to run in the three-eighths mile dashes of which several are carded at Butte and Anaconda. He thinks his horse can beat even quarter horses and yet go on as far as three-quarters. Walden has Nellie Fosse and three other good maidens to take along.

The programme announced for Tuesday at Washington Park by Secretary Howard is: First race, purse $400, for maidens, 3-year-olds and upward, 7 1/2 furlongs. Second race, purse $400, for 2-year-olds, selling, 5-8 mile. Third race, purse $600, for 3-year-olds, special weights, 1 1/16 miles. Fourth race, purse $500, selling, 1 1/4 miles. Fifth race, purse $500, for 3-year-olds and upward, non-winning, allowances, 6 1/4 furlongs.

Winner—Br. m. 5, by Amphion—Starlight. Start good. Won handily. Lambent was lucky and well handled. Is good and finished game and strong. Nosey got off tangled up, but closed steadily throughout. Was probably the best, but is hardly partial to weight. Is extra good. Watch him at a longer distance. Aurum was galloping the first half. Was probably short. Mainstay is of no account except when specially favored and lucky. Traveler is faint hearted and not of much account, but had no chance anyway with his jockey.

Scratched—Rotterdam, 128; Mount Washington, 125.

6877 SECOND RACE—5-8 Mile. 2-year-olds. Fillies. Allowances. The Vernal Stakes. $1000 Added.

Winner—B. f. by Ben Strome—Whipcord. Start good. Won easily. Whiplash has extreme speed. She appeared to be galloping until the last furlong. Is game and high of class. Caoutchouc took the long route. She closed stoutly at the end and was undoubtedly handicapped by her jockey. High Degree was overweighed in this company. She ran an honest, game race and had early speed in plenty. The last four pulled up at the end. Pride could have been a fair fourth. She is a bad actor at the post. Tender, Rock Dove and Nell Dale belong among cheaper company. All showed speed behind the good ones.

Scratched—Loiter, 108; Lepida, 108.

6878 THIRD RACE—1 3-4 Miles. $1000 added. 3-year-olds and upward. Handicap. On Turf.

Winner—B. h. 7, by Dutch Roller—Lena. Start good. Won easily. Skater was thrown in. The distance was especially to his liking, and he was easily the best. He is not within pounds of his best form of last year, however. Latson carried his weight well, but got rather a badly judged ride. He was waited with too long and closed very strong in the last quarter. He is a natural stayer. Defender closed like a whirlwind at the end after appearing to be absolutely out of the race. He is uncertain. Siffleur ran well, but was outclassed and belongs elsewhere. Sir Vassar had plenty of speed, but is stale, and naturally failed. Abingdon can't stay. He showed finely for a mile.

Scratched—Thomas Cat, 126.

Time, 24 1/2, 49 1/2, 1:02.

Winner—B. f. by Islington—Mollie. Start good. Won easily. Effervescent was easily the best. She pulled away in the stretch like a good one. The Gardener, off poorly and badly messed about, finished with gameness, but is only ordinary. Baden was probably short. Is a good looker. He showed prominently and finished game. Strangest ran an improved race and is a good looker. Royal Maiden is only ordinary and was overweighed. Dr. Fitzsimmons is cheap. Gary is a good looker and has speed. Handcuff is of no account. Loiter at present is in poor form evidently.

Scratched—Half Time, 117; Himitine, 117; Sagasta, 94.

AN OLD TURFMAN'S CASE.

John Rodegap is a turfman of renown and will, by the public, be remembered as the trainer of Spokane, the Derby horse of Noah Armistead, Sam Bryant's Proctor Knott. Mr. Rodegap had fair success for the years prior to 1896, and amassed a competence, but to the regret of all well wishers of honest trainers, the past three years have brought disaster to him and as a sample of his bad luck, witness his story of the happenings of Thursday last when he started The Elector in the first race and Her Favor in the Englewood stakes. "Kitley rode The Elector," said he, "and somehow or other got tangled up on the first turn. I cannot see how it happened, for the horse is a free going fellow. At any rate, his chances was settled. I landed here with my horses fit, and Captain Tilles, the owner, expected to win heavily on The Elector and then play Her Favor for the stake. But what difference as to Kitley's ride when Caywood acted so incompetently in the other race. There was Her Favor just galloping along in second position to Afamadit, when at the far turn up came an outsider—Graziella—and bumped into Her Favor, knocking her down, but luckily not cutting her legs off. Now, why Caywood did not let my filly go along and get out of the way I cannot say, but once getting her on her legs again, the jockey sent her flying through the stretch, although hopelessly beaten. I tell you when a man gets to going on the down grade, everything runs awry. I am through with stake entries from this out and will only try for the purses. In the spring of 1895 I bought twelve of as fine yearlings as any one man ever owned and it only took one of them to break me up in business. This was Bishop Reed, a colt by Bishop, out of a Long Taw mare. My! but wasn't he a sweet one! His trials in the fall at Lexington were simply marvelous. With weight up—113 pounds—he stepped a quarter in .234 and went the three furlongs over the hill in .34. The next spring at Memphis he did all I asked of him and worked a quarter in .224 seconds, so I knew I had a grand racehorse.

The winter before I had entered Bishop Reed in all the big stakes both for 1896 and 1897 and I expected with the colt to make a fortune. We shipped to St. Louis, where was to be his first start, and the morning before the race the boys could scarcely get my pot out of the stall, so stiff was he. The veterinary said that his temperature was 106 and that he had some prevailing form of fever. It is only this spring that I got him to a race and now he will never be better than a cheap selling plate. The dose I got—paying $2500 last year in forfeits—is enough for John Rodegap, who henceforth will let yearlings and stake entries alone."

1124 AUDITORIUM ANNEX

HOURS 10 TO 12 A. M.

Start good. Won driving. The long delay at the post hurt the top weights. Ogden was best but lucky at the start and perfectly handled throughout. He was under a choking pull for nearly a mile. Is in wonderful form, and probably about the speediest horse here. Tragedian, steadily improving and having the best of the weights, was waited with and finished like a whirlwind. Ornament was hurt by the long delay and got away none too well. He was hurried too much in the middle half. Is good and ran a grand race. Lehman suffered at the start. He showed a fast fourth quarter on the outside covering too much ground. He ran his race but was unlucky. Semper Ego showed a surprising burst of speed the first part, contrary to his usual disposition, but stopped the last eighth. He ran in his best form but got a badly judged ride. Thomas Cat ran a splendid race but was outclassed on a speed basis. Caldron was not quite seasoned for the trip, besides being outclassed. Enela wants light weight. She stopped after showing prominently.

Scratched—Handball, 100.

Time, 3:47.

Winner—Ch. f. 4, by Tea Tray—Repentant.

Start fair. Won handily. Trayant was probably the best at the weight, is a remarkably promising jumper and rare stayer. He should improve. Brown Red is at his best now and ran his race. Lawrence ran well and got bad handling. Forget got an atrocious ride. Her jockey nearly fell off a half mile from the finish. Throw out this race. Baby Bill made a bad blunder at the first hurdle and never was a contender afterward.

Overweights—Sir Lawrence, 2 pounds; Trayant, 1.

Winner—Br. c, 4, by Hindoo—Alga.
Post 15 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second well in hand; third and fourth driving hard. Macy was far the best. If ridden out he could have run a second faster. This colt is in rare form. With the same weight up he can beat almost anything at the track. Hurly Burly ran a cracking good race herself. She stumbled and almost fell at the start and was shut off twice on the club house turn. She had all the bad luck in the race. The Roman seemed stiff and sore. His race was good and he should improve from it. He is a colt of class and can be tabbed closely. The Elector, badly outrun the first part of it, finished with a rush. He was interfered with on the far turn and obliged to go around the field. Graziella, under the light weight, showed quite a turn of speed. Donna Rita was jumped on and injured. Burns spoiled one of the breaks and the starter set him down for two days commencing Tuesday next. Several competent horsemen timed the last mile in 1:38.

6865 SECOND RACE—5-8 Mile. Purse, value to winner $510. 2-year-olds. Allowances.

Winner—Ch. c, by Onomadaga—Patty of Cork.
Post 17 minutes. Start fair. The first three were driving hard. Onomastus was away flying and lucky. He got a good ride and always had clear sailing. He was tiring fast, though, at the end. Kentucky Colonel had no excuses. He got away well enough to win, and took the short route, too. He finished strong under punishment, but could not quite get up. Toluca was perhaps the best. She moved away slowly, and was compelled to run around the field. With an equal break she would have been hard to beat. It was a bad acting bunch, and the starter was lucky in dispatching the field as he did. Gold Fox had early speed. Ostra ran her race at the post.
Scratched—Approval, 111; April's Lady, 108.

Winner—Ch. c, 4, by Fonso—Bettie Blaise.
Post 5 minutes. Start good. Won in a long, hard drive of two; the third was driving also, but less hard. It was a grand race. Fervor was perfectly ridden and a good horse. Martin placed him nicely the entire route and rode a powerful finish. He could have won on either of the first two. What Er Lou showed himself to be a colt of quality. He was on the outside all the way and lost a lot of ground on the club house turn. At the sixteenth pole he looked like the winner. Foucon, though, seemed to get rattled and let Martin outfinish him. Imp was right there. She had plenty of speed, but was giving away too much weight. It may be the filly was a little short, too. She stopped at the end as though she was shot. Time maker showed he was a sprinter only. He went all to pieces after going about a mile. Judge Denny ran a good race and Bannockburn a bad one. The latter seems to be of no present account.

Winner—Ch. h, 6, by Fonso—Flyer.
Post 4 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second and third driving. Morte Fonce was the best and in a soft spot. He is a hard horse to ride and Thorpe understands him best. The old horse loafed to the stretch and then came away on call. Lew Hopper was used up in pacemaking. He was tiring fast at the finish. Croesus is a game colt. He was under punishment the last three furlongs and would have been second in a few more strides. Albert S. stumbled at the start and made up a lot of ground down the back stretch. Inconstancy won't do at all. She seems to have lost her form entirely. Millie M. ran well for three-quarters and then retired. Kitley was not strong enough to do Roger B. justice.

Post 2 minutes. Start good. Won with something left after an early drive; second whipped out. Algol was far the best. Burns threw away the race on him. He got pocketed at the start used the colt a lot on the turn and went to sleep in the stretch. Algol was running well in hand when straightened away for home and Burns was sitting still laughing at Sloan on Meddler. Turner stole a march, and coming with a rush on the outside, stole the race. Meddler showed a lot of speed, but could not carry it to the end. Alabaster did not run his race.

Winner—B. g, 8, by Luke Blackburn—Maud Ward.
Post 2 minutes. Start good. Won in a gallop; it was a hard drive for the place. Hugh Penny was at his best and galloped over Bellicoso on call. This old fellow is in excellent form now and is one of the best selling players at the track. Caywood rode a good race. He waited and let Bellicoso race himself into submission. Nathanson is an honest horse. He was right there. Bellicoso did not hang on so well today as he did in his last two races. He was tiring badly at the finish and Nathanson would have beaten him in a few more strides. Cherryflame could not stand the pace. A lot of wrangling came out of the race. W. H. Snarley and F. W. Doss both claimed Bellicoso and Sam Hildreth in turn claimed Nathanson. Hildreth got the latter and Snarley has Bellicoso.
